

Rules for Bartow-Pell Fall into Fall Harvest Festival Fruit Pie Baking Competition:

Categories: There is one category, which is open to both amateur and professional bakers: Pie, which is a sweet dessert consisting of a single or double homemade pastry crust, filled with any type of fruit. The crust must be prepared from scratch. Pies must not require refrigeration.

Pies must be baked in a standard 9 – 9 ½ inch pie pan. A disposable container or packaging is preferred, but if you feel your pie will benefit from the use of a glass pie plate, you can do so, however both pie plates must be the same, your name must be on the bottom of the plates, and Bartow-Pell will not be responsible for pie plates getting broken, damaged, or lost.

How to enter: Please email info@bpmm.org and tell us about yourself and your pie. All entries must be received by Wednesday, October 9, 2019 by 12pm.

Entry information: All entries must include the following required information: • A complete recipe for one pie, in standard format listing exact ingredients, quantities, and preparation steps. (Recipe must be for one pie, although you will be bringing two) • Name, address, phone number, and email address of entrant • The “story” of your recipe: If you created it, what inspired you? Or is it a recipe handed down in the family? If so, how have you adapted it? Was it a secret pried from a relative? Do you serve it on any special occasions?

Originality: By entering, contestants warrant that the recipe they supply represents their own creation and is not a duplication of a copyrighted recipe.

Entrants: All entrants must prepare and bring (or arrange to have delivered) a pie baked according to their finalist recipe, unsliced, ready to be tasted, to Bartow-Pell Mansion Museum on Saturday, October 12, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. Pies must not require refrigeration. A disposable container or packaging is preferred, but if you feel your pie will benefit from a glass pie plate, you can do so, however: your name must be on the bottom of the plate, and we will not be responsible for pie plates getting broken, damaged, or lost. You will have to pick up your pie plates at the end of the competition, after the judging is completed. Any plates not retrieved by Tuesday, October 9 will be donated to a local thrift shop.

Judging: Recipes and pies will be judged based on creative use of ingredients, appearance, taste and relative ease and clarity of preparation method. All decisions of the judges are final. Winners will be announced and prizes awarded at approximately 2 p.m. on Saturday, October 12, 2019 during Bartow-Pell’s Fall into Fall Harvest Festival. Although we strongly recommend that all finalists be there, winners do not need to be present to win.
